

Rhestr Testunau – English Version

GENERAL RULES OF THE EISTEDDFOD

Please note, the Rules stated below are relevant to every Eisteddfod – Local, Regional and National.

Where a clarification of the Rules is necessary, the Welsh language version of the Rules shall be used as the basis for the decision.

1. Language policy

The Eisteddfod aims to promote Welsh culture and to protect the Welsh Language. Welsh is the official language of the Eisteddfod.

All creative works and competitions must be in Welsh except where noted otherwise for a particular competition.

i Where there is no call for knowledge of the Welsh language the competitions are open to any member of the Urdd born in Wales, or any person who has a parent that were born in Wales, or any person living in Wales immediately before the festival or any person who can speak or write in Welsh. Words used in any work must be in Welsh.

ii Recitation / Action Song / Dramatic Presentation / Theatre

An exception may be made to use another language when there is a need to put part of the work into context. However, over - use of another language will not be permitted.

iii Disco/Hip Hop/Street Dancing / Creative Dancing

Music with Welsh language vocals or instrumental music only, should be used as an accompaniment.

2. Only full members of Urdd Gobaith Cymru may compete in Local, County/Regional and National Eisteddfodau. No one shall be considered a full member unless the membership fee has been paid and a Membership Card and number have been received for the year 2014/15. Membership must be registered in good time. Competition Forms can not be accepted without a membership number. It is possible to enrol on our website urdd.org/aelodaeth.
3. Every Urdd member has the right to submit an entry form to the local Urdd Eisteddfod. There are no restrictions on the right to compete. The Urdd allows schools if they so wish, to hold a school eisteddfod and to send representatives to the local Urdd Eisteddfod but they must allow every member to compete in the local Urdd Eisteddfod if that is their, or their parents wish. It is possible to register on line as a member of a branch or as an individual urdd.org/eisteddfod. We encourage teachers and group leaders to ensure that everybody who competes in the local eisteddfod is able to perform the piece/task in question.
4. Competitors must learn all the verses in every piece and be ready to sing/recite the number requested by the Adjudicator in a preliminary or stage performance. They must also accept the key and edition noted in the Syllabus. It is not permitted to use a different edition or to change key unless noted in the Syllabus.
5. The use of copies is not permitted in any section except the instrumental competitions.
6. Every competitor must appear on the stage of the County/Regional Eisteddfod. No individual, party or choir may compete in the preliminary stages of the National Eisteddfod unless officially sent there by one of the Urdd County/Regional Eisteddfodau.
7. Every competitor must use/perform the same piece/es of work all the way from the Local Eisteddfod to the National Eisteddfod and the same competitors must be used along the journey. There is no right to change competitors between the Local/Regional Eisteddfod and the National Eisteddfod. We encourage everyone in group competitions (5 competitors or more) to list reserves in order to avoid any problems that may arise.
8. The winner of each local competition will represent the County/Region at the National Eisteddfod. If the winner cannot appear, the second placed in the County/Regional Eisteddfod may be invited by the Eisteddfod Dept, and (only by the Dept) to take his/her place. Occasionally the Eisteddfod may invite the first and second placed to represent the County/Region at the National Eisteddfod. The relevant competitors will be informed shortly after the final County/Regional Eisteddfod has been held. In the region where the Eisteddfod is held the first and second placed will represent the County/Region in stage competitions only.
9. Joint winners, be they individual, party or choir will not be accepted from the County/Regional Eisteddfodau. Every County/Regional committee must arrange with the adjudicators that no joint first, second or third placing should be awarded to individuals or parties in the County/Regional Eisteddfod. If the names of joint winners are sent to the National Eisteddfod, none of the names will be accepted.
10. All competitors must be within the correct age group on the last day of August 2015, that is on 31 August following the Eisteddfod. When an "age 14 – 25" competition is specified, for example, the competitors must have had their 14th but not their 25th birthday. Co-operation is sought from competitors, branch leaders and Local, County/Regional committee officials. Each competitor's date of birth will be requested prior to the National Eisteddfod. If any doubt arises regarding the age of any competitor the Eisteddfod organisers reserve the right to ask to see the Birth Certificate of that competitor and to disqualify from the competition any competitor who does not comply with this important rule.

11. The adjudicator's decision will be final in every case within the rules and regulations of the festival. Any appeal/protest must be brought to the attention of the Eisteddfod organiser or Urdd officers (in relation to Local or Regional Eisteddfodau), in writing within an hour of the announcement of the result of the competition, it is possible to discuss the matter verbally as well.
12. Specific Time Rule – In competitions where specific performing times are set, it is required to keep within those specific times noted. It is not acceptable to deliberately perform a piece which is over the specified time. The Eisteddfod will not disqualify competitors for going over the time limit but they will be penalised by subtracting points in accordance with following:
Up to 30 seconds = no points
30 seconds – 1 minute = 5 points
1 minute – 2 minutes = 10 points
2 minutes – 3 minutes = 15 points
Over 3 minutes = 20 points
13. A written adjudication will be available to every competitor upon completion of the competition. A written adjudication cannot be ensured for competitors in homework competitions. A list of the winners and a volume of the winning literary compositions will be published. An exhibition of the winning entries in the Art, Design and Technology will be arranged.
14. The administration of the County/Regional Eisteddfod is the responsibility of the County/Regional Committee. Likewise, the sole responsibility for administering the Local Eisteddfodau is delegated to the Local Committees. The competition rules of the Urdd National Eisteddfod are applicable to every Urdd Eisteddfod. They must be adhered to in the Local and Regional Eisteddfodau. In a situation of dispute the local/county officials must liaise with the Eisteddfod dept, before making any decisions.
15. The County/Regional Eisteddfod for competitors from outside Wales will be held on 14 March 2015. All competitors from outside Wales must submit a completed competition form no later than 14 February 2015.
16. (i) Competitors are permitted to compete in their home area or where they receive their full time education or in a branch where they are instructed for the competition in question. Competitors who have left full time education, and who have left their home area are not permitted to associate themselves with that area as an individual competitor, unless they have set up a new home in the area in question.
(ii) A competitor may belong to more than one branch of the Urdd – i.e. School Adran and Aelwyd. In such cases the competitor may compete for either branch in separate competitions, associating him/herself with the branch that instructed the competitor for that specific competition rather than the branch that enrolled the competitor as a member. However, no competitor should associate themselves with a branch which is some distance from their home without a sufficient and sensible reason.
(iii) The decision of the Chairman of the Eisteddfod Board and the Director of the Eisteddfod is final on this matter. No one is permitted to compete for more than one branch in the same competition or belong to more than one duet, party or choir and so on in the same competition. No competitor may compete on different instruments in the same instrumental competition.
17. A Competitor is not allowed to compete as an 'individual competitor' if there is an Urdd branch within the school or within 10 miles of his/her home. The competitor MUST associate him/her self with that particular branch at all times, unless the closest branch within 10 miles to his/her home is in another region. In such cases, competitors are permitted to compete as an individual competitor in his/her home region.
18. Unless the competitor responds without delay when called to perform in any preliminary or any Eisteddfod, the competitor will forfeit the right to compete.
19. Vocal soloists and duets must use the Official Eisteddfod Accompanists in both the preliminary rounds and on the Eisteddfod stage. This is not applicable to instrumental soloists or the Solo from a Musical.
20. The Urdd will provide a full Drum kit for the preliminaries and stage, competitions in the National Eisteddfod. Competitors are not permitted to use their own drums. This does not apply to the Local/Regional Eisteddfod where competitors must use their own Drum kits.
21. If merited three competitors will normally be staged in each competition, but the number may vary due to competition standard, time constraints etc.
22. Adjudicators are not permitted to instruct any competitor within the sections they are adjudicating, in the eisteddfod between 1 September and the Eisteddfod date. Local and Regional committees should refrain from inviting the National Eisteddfod adjudicators to adjudicate in the same section of work in their eisteddfod. An exception may be made to this rule when an emergency arises and an adjudicator is forced to withdraw from the Eisteddfod. The Director reserves the right to bring in adjudicators at the last minute to complete the task.
23. The Urdd Council, in consultation with the Eisteddfod Executive Committee, reserves the right to curtail, postpone or cancel the Eisteddfod if it is deemed necessary due to special circumstances. The Urdd Council and the Eisteddfod Executive Committee will endeavour to ensure that the Festival is efficiently organised, but neither the Council nor the Executive Committee shall be held responsible for any loss or accident that occurs during the Eisteddfod. The same applies to the Local and Regional Eisteddfodau.

24. COPYRIGHT - it is illegal for competitors to make their own additional copies of music, poetry or any other work that has been published. For more information regarding copyright or clearing performance rights of Own Choice pieces, log on to our website urdd.org/eisteddfod then click on "Copyright Assistance".
25. When counting the number of children in a school for the purpose of competing, children should be counted from reception class until year 6 inclusive on 31st January.
26. The Urdd reserves the right not to stage every competition on the main National Eisteddfod stage.
27. The Eisteddfod committee reserves the right to televise, broadcast or record any part of the Eisteddfod activities without prior consultation with competitors and adjudicators in every Eisteddfod, Local/Regional and the National. By purchasing or accepting a ticket to enter the Eisteddfod site ('Y Maes'), Local/Regional Eisteddfod the ticket holder accepts that his/her image may be recorded or broadcasted. Any honorarium given will be the property of the Eisteddfod, and for this purpose the competitors agree to yield with no restrictions their so called 'moral rights' (including without restriction any rights under section 77 and 80 of the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988) or any similar laws of any jurisdiction.
28. When presenting a competition entry form, every competitor, instructor, parent and supporter commit to comply with all the Urdd's competition rules, general conditions and code of conduct.
29. The Urdd has the right to publish all or some of the winning musical and literary compositions and to use them for the purpose of the Movement in future without seeking the permission of the authors.
30. There is a system to register competitor on-line in place for every regions in Wales. It is advisable for members to enrol as early as possible in the autumn and to register competitors for the local eisteddfod in good time. Every region will have a definite closing date with a short period to verify information before the system closes, following which it will not be possible to add competitors. It will be possible for parents to check their child's competitions more details on line urdd.org/eisteddfod. The details for the closing date of each region is on the Urdd website – urdd.org/eisteddfod

"Urdd Gobaith Cymru expects competitors, instructors and supporters to engage in the spirit of fair play in all aspects of the Movement's activities."

GENERAL RULES FOR WELSH LEARNERS

- PRIMARY – Learners are members who have not followed / are not following a Welsh Programme of Study in Key Stages 1 and 2 but, if they are non-Welsh latecomers to a school where the majority of pupils study through the medium of Welsh then it is permitted to compete as learners for their first three years at the school.

SECONDARY - Learners are members who have not followed / are not following a Welsh Programme of Study in Key Stages 1, 2 or 3. It is permitted for non-Welsh latecomers to compete as learners.

We would hope that members who have one Welsh speaking parent at home will not compete as a learner.
- Every Adran leader must sign the competition form to warrant the validity of every competitor in the Learners' Section competitions.
- Competitors must accept the edition and the key noted in this syllabus. It is not permitted to use a different edition or to change key in any competition unless otherwise stated.
- Individuals, parties, groups and choirs must learn the pieces in full or the number of verses stated in the Competition Syllabus.
- When a company, group or party use pre-recorded music or play live any music which has been commercially published, it is the responsibility of that company, group or party to ensure copyright clearance. Please see website www.urdd.org for further details.
- The competition rules in the Cerdd Dant, Recitation, Theatre and Literature Sections for Welsh speakers are also relevant to the competitions for Welsh learners.

OFFICIAL NAME OF URDD BRANCHES

- 1. School Adran: Every branch that operates wholly within either a Primary School or Secondary School.
- 2. Adran/Aelwyd: Branches of the Urdd which are open to all the Movement's enrolled members within the relevant age group and who meet and rehearse independently of the educational system outside school or college hours, with a programme of activities from the autumn term onwards which is not an extension of the Urdd work within a school or college
- 3. Stage Schools – are welcome to compete in the Eisteddfod in the categories for any Urdd member in the appropriate age group category e.g. the competitions not aimed at any particular category. Should you require further information, please do not hesitate to contact your local Eisteddfod Department.

In order to obtain the right to compete, every branch of the Urdd be that an Adran, Aelwyd, School or Stage School, must register with the Urdd annually. For more information please contact Swyddfa'r Urdd, Llangrannog or go to urdd.org and click on JOIN NOW.

NEW COMPETITION

BUSINESS INNOVATORS COMPETITION

1. Business Innovator Competition age 16 – 19
2. Business Innovator Competition age 19 – 25

In partnership with 'Menter a Busnes' a business competition will be held for the first time at the Eisteddfod and it is open to any member of the Urdd within the age categories noted above. The competitors will need to have a new business idea and an interest in being self employed now or in the future.

The competition criteria will be:

1. Present an application form and a creative output.
2. A panel of adjudicators and entrepreneurs to assess the applications.
3. The successful applicant to go forward to the final round on the Eisteddfod Maes
4. The winning applicant to receive a prize and an unique business support pack

More information, application form and competition guidelines are available on the Urdd website urdd.org/eisteddfod.

ART, DESIGN AND TECHNOLOGY

- 1 All competitors must enter their work at the County/Regional Eisteddfodau. Contestants should contact the secretaries of the County/Regional Committees if they wish to compete in any of the Art, Design and Technology competitions. The first winning piece in all of the Primary Section competitions and the first and second in the Secondary Section competitions will represent their County / Region at the National Eisteddfod.
- 2 The names of winning competitors will be submitted by the County/Regional Secretary to the Eisteddfod Dept. Names submitted by any other person will be disregarded.
- 3 Language policy: Welsh is the language of the Eisteddfod. The use of another language except Welsh shall only be allowed in exceptional circumstances and for emphasis only. The over use of another language is not permitted in the Art, Design and Technology section.
- 4 An Exhibition of the winning entries is organised by the Art, Design and Technology Committee. No one is permitted to take his/her work from the Exhibition during the Eisteddfod week.
- 5 These are all competitions for individuals unless otherwise stated.
- 6 "Group work" means work for a group of two or more.
- 7 In order to protect the work it is permitted to mount items on paper or thin card with a border of no more than 25 mm. Window mounts and frames must not be used for 2D work except where the frame is necessary for the structure of the work. The work will be professionally mounted for the National Exhibition.
- 8 Size of entries: (to include 25mm mount)
Competitions 155, 162, 163, 164 – No restriction in size
(a) 2D work: not exceeding 760mm x 560mm
(b) 3D work: not exceeding 1000mm x 1000mm x 1000mm. unless otherwise stated.
Further rules apply in the relevant section of the Puppet competitions.

Definition of 3D: An object which is visible from every direction and is able to support itself.
- 9 The name and number of the competition should be noted on the official card and placed on the back of every item or section of an item, and not on the front.
- 10 The connection with the theme should be noted clearly for each competition, be it individual or group work.
- 11 Competitors are not permitted to compete more than once in any competition within a specific section.
- 12 Extended Educational Needs are defined in accordance with the rules of the local Education Authority.
- 13 The work in the Design and Technology section (numbers 143 -167) can be based on the theme, but competitors have the freedom to choose their own subject

ART, DESIGN AND TECHNOLOGY MEDAL

This year's Medal is presented by Menter Iaith Caerffili

A silver medal is presented for the best exhibit in the Art, Design and Technology section under 19 years of age, from competition nos. 165 & 166.

Art, Design and Technology Scholarship

Kindly donated by Dr. Dewi Davies and family.

The £2000 scholarship is presented for the most promising piece of work by an individual between the ages of 18 and 25 years.

Guidelines of the Art Design and Technology Scholarship

A short list of deserving applicants for the Scholarship will be produced immediately after the judging in April by representatives of the Urdd's central sub-panel and the local panel. The short-listed applicants will then be invited to present an application letter indicating how the scholarship would be used to promote and develop their CDT work. The applications will then be considered by an established panel of judges that retain the right to ask the short listed applicants to attend an interview. It is hoped that the winner will be invited back the following year to present a selection of their work in the exhibition.

Who can compete?

The competition is open to any Urdd member who can comply with one or more of the following rules:

- Born in Wales or whose parents were born in Wales
- Living or working in Wales for 3 years before the current Eisteddfod
- Any person who can speak Welsh or write in Welsh

2. Every ensemble, band or orchestra must provide a full score of their music for the adjudicators.
3. The copies/scores must be sent with the name, address, phone number and competition number clearly noted upon them, at least two weeks in advance, to the Local Eisteddfod organisers,
4. It is against the law for competitors to reproduce copies of pieces that have already been published. The following is an extract from The Code of Fair Practice that has been prepared by the Music Publishers' Association.

"When a competitor plays an "own choice" piece from a publication containing a number of pieces, and that piece has not been published separately, it is permissible to make one photocopy for use at a competition or festival as long as the competitor has already purchased his/her own copy and that the copy is kept by the Administrator of the Competition or Festival and destroyed immediately after the event". This does not apply to set pieces.

Competitors who do not conform to this procedure will not be allowed to compete in the Local Eisteddfodau.

Copies will not be returned until after the competitor has appeared in the Local, Regional and National Eisteddfod.

5. Every competitor must perform the same instrumental piece(s) at every stage from the Local to the National Eisteddfod. Every competitor must provide their own accompanist. Pre-recorded music is not permitted.
6. A Conductor is permitted in competitions 211, 213, 214, 215 and 230.
7. When a company, group or party use pre-recorded music or play any music live which has been commercially published, it is the responsibility of that company, group or party to ensure copyright clearance.
8. See rules regarding time allowance for competitions on page 14.

The Urdd will provide a full Drum-kit for the preliminary and stage performances in the National Eisteddfod. It is not permitted to use your own Drums. This provision will not be available in the local and regional Eisteddfodau, you will need to use your own drums.

CERDD DANT

- 1. IMPORTANT The arrangement for each air will be noted in the Syllabus and that arrangement should be adhered to. An instrumental and/or vocal arrangement may be added to the air, but no instrument(s) other than the official harp(s) shall be used to play the full arrangement of the air.
- In competition nos. 245, 254, 256, 257, two harps must be used in the preliminaries and on the stage. The second harpist may be under 30 years old and chosen by the competitor or the second official harpist named in the Official Programme.
The use of an additional harpist to the two already mentioned is considered part of an ensemble and like any other instrumentalist used must be under 30 years old.
The number noted in a group refers to the number singing.
- If the competitor wishes to change the original key of the air, the change should be limited to a tone and a half above or below of the original key.
- The competitor and harpist should establish the timing and tempo before commencing the performance.
- Individuals, parties and choirs must learn all the verses. Any competitor found using a copy of the words will be disqualified from the competition.
- It is not permitted to assist competitors from either the stage or the audience.
- When a group or party use pre-recorded music or plays live any music which has been commercially published, it is the responsibility of that group or party to ensure copyright clearance.
- Three parties are allowed to represent the County/Region in competition no 257.
- In the local, regional and National Eisteddfodau all competitors in the Cerdd Dant section must use the official harpist(s) in the preliminaries and on the stage (with the exception of competitions 245, 254, 256, 257). It should be ensured that the service of a harpist is available in these eisteddfodau, but if a problem arises the use of a piano is permitted. It must be ensured that all competitors perform under the same conditions on every occasion, i.e. one official accompanist as noted above.

A guide on how to arrange the music for competitions in this section, is available on urdd.org/eisteddfod

See General Rules on page 12.

CERDD DANT PARTY/CHOIR COMPETITION

It was decided not to note two-part/two-voice but rather to note Party/Choir only – apart from when it is noted as Unison Party. This gives instructors the freedom to use a combination of unison, two-part or three-part as they wish according to their vision.

NEW COMPETITION

SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

In 2015 the Urdd will be launching a national science and technology competition for children and young people.

The details of this competition will be available on our website urdd.org/eisteddfod/gwyddonle.

This is an exciting opportunity to develop your skills in the fields of science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM).

RECITATION

1. Emphasis will be placed on the reciting and on the presentation and meaning of the poetry or prose. Experimenting is permitted if desired, according to the vision of the instructor. In experimentation competitors may, (if they wish), use movement, division, costumes, music or other effects. It must be emphasised that the above are only suggestions.
2. It is permitted to use music while experimenting, but no additional words may be used.
3. The technical restrictions of the National Eisteddfod stage must be taken into consideration as well as the lack of resources at the Local and Regional Eisteddfodau and in the Preliminaries at the National Eisteddfod.
4. The Eisteddfodau cannot be expected to provide any musical instrument.
5. The number noted in a group refers to the number reciting. Additional members are permitted for instrumental accompaniment only. In the competitions for Secondary Schools and Aelwydydd, everyone appearing in the competition must be within the appropriate age group. In the competitions designated for Adrannau (with the exception of School Adrannau) or for members of primary school age, one accompanist is permitted to be over the competition age limit.
6. The above is relevant to individuals as well as groups; however it must be emphasised that experimentation should not include elements that take up more room either in the preliminaries or on stage than the recitation competitions that were staged previously under the old rules. Normally, ordinary classrooms are used in the preliminaries, with the smallest classrooms being earmarked for the solo competitions.
7. Three groups or choirs are permitted to represent a County/Region in competition 297.
8. Competitors must accept the edition noted in this syllabus. It is not permitted to use a different edition in any competition unless otherwise stated.
9. Individuals and groups must learn all the verses, or the number of verses noted in the Syllabus
10. The performance must commence with an empty playing area, measuring approximately 10 x 8 mtr. It is not permitted to position any equipment, set or props before the competitors appear on stage. Likewise, it is not permitted to leave any equipment on stage after the company has departed at the end of the performance.
11. When a company or group use pre-recorded music or plays live any music which has been published commercially, it is the responsibility of that company or group to ensure copyright clearance.

1. The Public Speaking teams must register on the Urdd website urdd.org/eisteddfod.
2. The Eisteddfod department will arrange the adjudicator's itinerary at the convenience of the adjudicators and competitors. The general principle will be to send the adjudicators to venues where they can see and hear several teams on the same evening in a regional competition, rather than sending them to see each team individually at their own venue.
3. The regional competitions will be held during March and cannot be changed.
4. Each member of every team must be an enrolled member of the Urdd for 20014/15.
5. Following the delivery of an oral adjudication to each team after their performance in the regional competition, no written adjudication will be prepared, with the exception of general notes which will be sent to the teams chosen to appear in the final competition.
6. The teams chosen for the final competition must perform on the day and in the order decided upon by the Eisteddfod Organiser.
7. Please note that only a School/Adran team or an Aelwyd team will compete. The Adran/Aelwyd is the unit, and it is not permitted to borrow performers from other Adrannau/Aelwydydd. The number in a team is 4.
8. Having seen all the teams the adjudicators will select the best of the Secondary School/ Adrannau teams, and the best of the Aelwydydd teams to appear in the final competition which will be held during the Eisteddfod week. Every team, both successful and unsuccessful, will be notified in mid April.

THEATRE

Dialogue / Action Song / Monologue / Dramatic Presentation / 15 minutes of Entertainment
Anthology from a Musical Drama / Solo from a Musical / Comical Presentation

Competition Rules

1. The performance must commence with an empty performing area, measuring approximately 10 x 8 mtr. It is not permitted to position any equipment, set or props before the competitors appear on stage. Likewise, it is not permitted to leave any equipment on stage after the company has departed at the end of the performance
2. Suitable equipment is permitted.
3. The objective should be to have the whole company on the performing area throughout the performance. It should not be necessary for the performers to leave and return to the stage in order to change character (this can be achieved without leaving the stage) leaving and returning to the stage should be an exceptional occurrence.
4. The performance, from the adjudicator's point of view, continues until the company has left the stage.
5. There will be 5 microphones at the front of the stage in the National Eisteddfod, and it will also be possible to use up to 4 radio mikes. Competitors should contact the Stage Managers immediately after the Preliminary competition and well before the competition is on stage to discuss their requirements. The teacher/instructor may consult with the sound technician in relation to cueing.
6. The copies of the winning competitors at the Local Eisteddfod will be retained by the Development Officer who will then transfer them to the Regional Eisteddfod adjudicators until the competition is over. Immediately afterwards, the Development Officer will transfer the copies of the winning competitors at the Regional Eisteddfod to the care of the Eisteddfod Dept, Glan-Ilyn, so as to ensure that copies for each competitor reaches the national adjudicators in plenty of time.
7. In the Monologue and the Individual Theatrical Presentation competitions, competitors should not use any drama or prose which has been presented at the Urdd National Eisteddfod within the last three years.
8. Where possible each company, group or party will be encouraged to use original compositions. When a company, group or party play pre-recorded music or play live any music which has been published commercially, it is the responsibility of that company, group or party to ensure copyright clearance. Please see website urdd.org/eisteddfod for further guidance.
9. The performance is timed from the first movement or the first sound.
10. The National Eisteddfod will not provide any musical instruments.
11. It is permitted to include additional members for accompaniment only. The accompanists do not have to be within the competition age limit.
12. Dialogue: A presentation by 2 – 4 in number of an original, or set piece depending on the competition. The duration of any set script must be 5 minutes and it should be ensured that own choice scripts should not exceed 5 minutes. The instructors have the right to use two contrasting dialects but not necessarily south and north Wales's accent. It is permitted to change dialect and gender of characters if it makes sense and is compatible with the script. The performance must start and finish with an empty stage. Copies for the adjudicator must be ensured.

13. Action Song: Companies are expected to perform a presentation on the theme with the emphasis on singing and acting. The melody and lyrics can be either original or published or a combination of both and companies should aim for the music to flow through the performance. It is emphasised that when a company, group or party play pre-recorded music or play live any music which has been published commercially, they must ensure copyright clearance. There is no need for complicated sets, and encouragement is given to simple props and costumes. The performance must start and finish with an empty stage. Copies for the adjudicator must be ensured. When choosing the music it should be taken into consideration that the performance may be broadcasted. More details available on the Eisteddfod website urdd.org/eisteddfod.
14. Comical Presentation: A competition to promote comical performances (not being indecent or libellous in any way). It is expected for competitors to provide a copy of the material used for the adjudicator beforehand. A performance by an individual (comical monologue/ stand-up etc) or a group of up to four people is permitted. The limitations of the stage must be taken into account and the use of costumes and simple props is acceptable but not essential. The aim is to entertain the audience therefore it is emphasised that the script must be decent and suitable for the age of the competitor and also suitable to be performed on the Eisteddfod stage.
15. Monologue: Present a Monologue that will not take longer than 4 minutes to perform. The presentation may be from a drama or a suitable piece of prose. Simple props, costumes and music are permitted. The performance must start and finish with an empty stage. Copies for the adjudicator must be ensured.
16. Individual Theatrical Presentation: Present two monologues that will take no longer than 8 minutes to perform. A presentation, by an individual, of a series of monologues from dramas or a suitable pieces of prose, compiled into a completed script conveying two contrasting characters. Simple props, costumes and music may be used. The performance must start and finish with an empty stage. Copies for the adjudicator must be ensured.
17. Dramatic Presentation Year 7 – 9 and Year 10 and under 19 years old: A performance of a script on a fixed theme by a group. A presentation of the theme is expected with an emphasis on the dramatic element. It is permitted to use work such as parts of plays as well as original work. Music is allowed to add to the atmosphere but it should be noted that this is not the most important element of the competition. Simple props, costumes and set may be used. The performance must start and finish with an empty stage. Copies for the adjudicator must be ensured, and if using poetry, prose, plays or music the source must be noted.

The following competitions will not appear on the Local and County/Regional Eisteddfod stage.

18. Dramatic Presentation – Age Group Year 6 and under: A group performance of a script on a fixed theme. A presentation of the theme is expected with an emphasis on the dramatic element. It is permitted to use work such as parts of plays as well as original work. The use of music is allowed to add to the atmosphere but it should be noted that this is not the most important element of the competition. Simple props, costumes and set are allowed. The performance must start and finish with an empty stage. Copies for the adjudicator must be ensured, and if using poetry, prose, plays or music the source must be noted
19. 15 Minutes of Entertainment: Presentation by a group, of a series of entertaining items on a specific theme. Items of recitation, singing, dancing and sketches may be used, all of which should tie together to create 15 minutes of entertainment based on the theme. A compere is permitted but a series of items without any connection in the manner of a 'Noson Lawen' is not the aim. Group or Individual items are allowed but the aim is to have everybody on stage singing or dancing to create a complete performance. The use of props and costumes are permitted but there is no need for a set or heavy furniture. The stage should be set and cleared as the performance progresses. A band or pre-recorded music may be used. It is the groups responsibility to ensure copyright clearance if they wish to translate songs or use well-known music. The performance must start and finish with an empty stage. Copies for the adjudicator must be ensured, and if using poetry, prose, plays or music the source must be noted.
20. Anthology of a Musical Drama: A group presentation of a Musical Drama. There is no need to present the whole story and parts of songs may be used but the overall presentation must be seamless and complete. Props and costumes are permitted but there is no need for a set or heavy furniture. A band or pre-recorded music may be used. It is the group's responsibility to ensure copyright clearance. The performance must start and finish with an empty stage. Copies for the adjudicator must be ensured.

21. Short Play competition under 25 years old. The competitors may choose one act from a longer play, parts of a play, or a complete one act play. It is permitted to use an original play which has not been published or an already published play. Copyright clearance must be ensured if using a published play. No longer than 60 minutes to perform which also includes setting up and clearing the stage. The performances must begin and end with an empty stage. This competition is open to any age under 25 years old. Each company must complete competition form 'B' which can be found on our website and a final copy of the script must reach the Eisteddfod Dept by 1 March 2015. The regional round will be held during April in a suitable venue for the competitors in question. The adjudicator will choose the three most promising production to appear in the National Eisteddfod.
