A Word of Welcome

I am honoured to present the Carmarthenshire Urdd Eisteddfod Syllabus 2023. Carmarthenshire is now fully excited as it is just nine months before we will welcome you all to Llandovery. I can assure you that the residents of Llandovery and the county as a whole are actively preparing to provide the best possible welcome to the youth of Wales. We look forward to giving you the opportunity to experience the atmosphere and enthusiasm of this special County.

There's something for each of you in the syllabus; you are encouraged to go about it as individuals, primary, secondary schools and households. There is an amazing variety of stage competitions, homework, cooking, T competitions etc. Make sure you join all kinds of activities in your schools and households. The experiences you get from being part of a group dancing, singing, reciting, acting, playing an instrument etc are going to stay with you forever and of course everyone who arrives at the national will have the opportunity to perform on one of the stages. There's nothing like being involved in Urdd activities and making friends for life.

A word of thanks in advance to you the coaches and teachers who give hours of your time in addition to your daily work to ensure that the youth of Wales benefit and develop so much from having the experiences of performing and being involved in the Urdd's various competitions. Thank you also to the volunteers for giving up your time to support Urdd staff in every way possible with eisteddfod arrangements and activities. We look forward to welcoming you to Carmarthenshire in May.

Mae'n sir i ganu'i chlydydd,
Mae'n sir sy'n hen a newydd
Ac yn sir i fod yn ifanc ynddi hi.

Welcome Poem

Urdd National Eisteddfod Carmarthenshire 2023

Dewch, nentydd mynydd a mawn,
i gae irlas a gorlawn;
daear werdd y cyngherddau - i'r wyl lle daw Cymru i wâu yn un cerrynt sy'n cario
hyder grym ifanc 'da'r gro;
dewch i'r sgwâr a drama'r dre,
i Sir Gâr, i sioe'r geirie.

Heddiw hael yw'r bröydd hyn,
yn hael fel oedd Llywelyn, a'u croeso'n llifo'n llafar - Gwydderig sy'n gerddi gwâr
a dŵr Brân sy'n gân i gyd, afiaith yw Sawdde hefyd.
A Thywi hithau? Awen
yw ei llif, penllanw'n llên.

Dewch ym Mai yn finteioedd, lond gwlad i'r ystrad, lle'r oedd emyn yn treiddio'r trumiau
a gardd a sgwennwyd o gae.
Dewch i'r clwb a dewch i'r clos, dewch, wir! A dewch i aros!
I olau cân a chlec iaith,
yn rhan o genlli'r heniaith.

Eisteddfod Genedlaethol yr Urdd / Urdd National Eisteddfod - General Rules

The rules stated below are relevant to every Eisteddfod – ‘Cylch’ (Local), ‘Rhanbarth’ (Regional) and ‘Cenedlaethol’ (National).

What is an Eisteddfod?

The Urdd National Eisteddfod (‘Eisteddfod Genedlaethol yr Urdd’), one of Europe’s largest youth touring festivals that attracts around 90,000 visitors each year, will once again be held during Whitsun week at the end of May. The Urdd Eisteddfod week is the pinnacle of around three years’ hard work by local volunteers. It attracts a lot of attention from the press including TV, radio, the web and local and national newspapers.

The Eisteddfod is a competitive festival with over 15,000 children and young people under the age of 25 competing during the Eisteddfod week in various competitions such as singing, dancing and performing. They have been whittled down from around 40,000 competitors across Wales, having won their place following local (‘Eisteddfod Gylch’) and regional (‘Eisteddfod Rhanbarth’) rounds held in the spring months leading up to the Urdd National Eisteddfod (‘Eisteddfod Genedlaethol yr Urdd’).

The three Pavilions, Coch, Gwyn & Gwyrdd (Red, White & Green, representing the Urdd colours) are the hub of the Eisteddfod. Surrounding these Pavilions on the ‘Maes’ are a myriad of colourful stalls offering a range of activities for all the family – from climbing and sport sessions to live bands, children’s shows with some well-known TV characters and a fun fair. Also, the Arts Exhibition displays all the winners of the Art, Design & Technology competitions.

In 2023, the Eisteddfod Genedlaethol yr Urdd (Urdd National Eisteddfod) will be held in Llandovery, Carmarthenshire and in 2024, the festival will visit Maldwyn. We hope to see you there!

Eisteddfod yr Urdd Terminology

‘Rhanbarth’ (Regional) – County round (there are 18 Urdd Counties in Wales)

Compliance with the Rules All competitors, coaches, parents, and supporters commit to complying with all Eisteddfod competition rules, general conditions and the Urdd’s code of conduct. The Urdd guidance and Code of Conduct is available for all competitors, coaches, and parents to view by clicking www.urdd.cymru/en/about-and/policy-studies/confidentiality.

Urdd Gobaith Cymru expects all competitors, instructors / teachers and parents to commit to a spirit of fair play in all aspects of the Urdd’s competitions and activities.

- 2 Accessibility - The Urdd Eisteddfod is committed to providing equal experience and opportunities and to make every reasonable effort to make the competing experience as enjoyable as possible for all.

The Eisteddfod Department can invite the second as well as the first to represent the ‘Rhanbarth’ at the ‘Eisteddfod Genedlaethol’ (National). The relevant competitors will be notified shortly after the last Eisteddfod ‘Rhanbarth’ has been held. If there is doubt about the age of any competitor, the Eisteddfod Organizers will have the right to ask to see the member’s birth certificate.

- 6 Competing
 - i) All members of the Urdd can compete in the area where they live, where they receive their full-time education, or with the branch where they practice (with regards to group competition).
 - ii) All members competing in multiple individual competitions must do so in the same branch. It is not permitted to compete in more than one Local / Regional round in individual competitions.
 - iii) All 19-25 years old duets, trios or quartets must compete where the majority of members live or receive their education. Where there is no majority, you must contact the Eisteddfod Department, Glan-Ilyn, before registering.

Members under the age of 19 must compete in a branch where they live, where they receive their full-time education, or with the branch where they practice with the group competition in question.

iv) A member may belong to more than one branch – a School 'Adran' and an 'Aelwyd', for example. That member can compete for either branch in different competitions. However, they must choose to compete as an individual in one branch or the other, but in group competitions the member can associate themselves with the branch that taught the group in that specific competition

v) Competitors are not permitted to compete for more than one branch in the same competition or belong to more than one group in the same competition.

7 Individual Member - Any Urdd Member is permitted to compete as an Individual Member when they are not affiliated to a branch in the Region where their home is, or where they receive their education.

8 Number in School Branches - In the competitions where the number of pupils in a school branch is limited, they should be counted from reception to Year 6 on 31 January (prior to the Eisteddfod). In Lifelong Learning schools, count all relevant pupils up to Year 6.

General Rules for Welsh Learners (Dysgwyr Cymraeg)

1 Members where one parent in the home can speak Welsh should not compete as learners in individual competitions.

2 Members moving from Welsh Medium to English-medium education are allowed to compete as a learner in group competitions for learners only.

PRIMARY - Learners are classified as members who have not followed or are not following a Welsh programme of study in the Foundation Phase and in Key Stage 2. If they are latecomers, moving from a non-Welsh medium school to a school where the majority of pupils study through the medium of Welsh, they are permitted to compete as learners for their first three years at the school.

SECONDARY - Learners are members who have not followed or are not following a Welsh Programme of Study in Key Stages 2 or 3. If they are latecomers, moving from a non-Welsh medium Primary or Secondary school to a Secondary school where the majority of pupils study through the medium of Welsh, they are permitted to compete as learners for their first three years at the school.

3 Authenticity: When registering competitors, it is understood that branch leaders guarantee the authenticity of every competitor in the Welsh Learners' Section competitions.

4 The General rules of the 'Eisteddfod Genedlaethol yr Urdd (Urdd National Eisteddfod), in addition to the competition rules set out in each section also apply to learners' competitions.

How to Compete?

1 Register to compete - Everyone who wishes to compete must register on our website before the respective national deadlines. See 'Dates to Remember' on page 13.

2 Verifying Period - There will be a verifying period of three working days for members to check the information after the closing date. Guardians can check their children's competitions online, alerting the branch / school / Urdd of any problem.

3 Late Registration - Once the verifying period has expired the system will close and it will not be possible to add competitors or modify information unless an administration fee is paid. Late registration can be made by paying the administration fee up to 48 hours before the first performance / Eisteddfod.

4 Set pieces - Competitors must learn the set piece noted in the syllabus and be prepared to perform the whole work at each Eisteddfod stage. Copies of words and/or music are not permitted except in the instrumental competitions. Competitors must use the correct edition(s) and key(s) noted in the Syllabus. Some solo competitions offer a choice of keys to suit the vocal range of competitors and these will be noted in the syllabus.

5 Eisteddfod Rhanbarth (Regional Eisteddfod) - Each competitor must appear on the stage of the 'Eisteddfod Rhanbarth' unless noted otherwise (page 75). No individual, party or choir may compete in the 'Eisteddfod Genedlaethol yr Urdd' (Urdd National), unless they have been officially sent there following the result of at the 'Eisteddfod Rhanbarth'.

6 Uniformity - All competitors must perform the same piece(s) throughout the Eisteddfod journey, from the 'Eisteddfod Gylch' (Local) to the 'Eisteddfod Genedlaethol' (Urdd National). It is not permitted to change competitors between Eisteddfodau. Everyone in group competitions is encouraged to list reserves in order to avoid any issues that may arise.

Eisteddfod Rules

1 Joint winners - Joint placings (first, second and third) will not be awarded in any Eisteddfod competition. If joint winners' names are sent to the Eisteddfod Department, neither competitor will be accepted. In the same manner, it is not possible to share prizes in the 'Composing and Creating' competitions.

2 Specific Time Rule - No performance may exceed the stated time specified in the Syllabus. If the competitor's performance exceeds the allotted time at the 'Eisteddfod Gylch' and/or Rhanbarth (Local and/or Regional) a note will be placed in the adjudication, and they will be verbally informed by the Eisteddfod Organizer. The piece must be modified by the next performance. By the 'Eisteddfod Genedlaethol' (Urdd National Eisteddfod), it is not permitted for any performance to be over the specified time limit. If a competitor exceeds the time limit on stage they will not be eligible to be awarded first or second place

Note: The Urdd Eisteddfod's official timings will be used to decide if a competitor has exceeded the permitted time.

3 Before Competing - All competitors must be prepared to perform when called. If they do not register within half an hour of their allotted time, the Eisteddfod Department has the right to remove them from the competition.

4 Official Accompanists - Vocal soloists and duettists must use the Official Eisteddfod Accompanists on-stage. This does not include instrumental soloists, the Solo 19-25 years old, the Solo or the Duet / Ensemble from a Musical.

Procedures and processes

1 The Adjudicator's Decision - The judges' decision in each case will be final within the rules and guidelines of the festival. Any appeal should be made in writing and brought to the attention of the Eisteddfod Organizers or Urdd Officers within an hour following the conclusion of any competition. The matter may also be discussed verbally. Under exceptional circumstances, an Appeal Panel will be established. There must be robust reasons for establishing an Appeal Panel. Disagreeing with the adjudicator's opinion is not an adequate reason. The main adjudicator of each competition is the name that appears first in the programme. The decision of the Chair of the Eisteddfod and Arts Board and the Chair of the Urdd will be final on the competitive matters of all Urdd Gobaith Cymru Eisteddfodau.

2 Adjudication - A short adjudication will be available to all competitors after the competition has appeared on stage. A written adjudication cannot be guaranteed to competitors for composition work. A list of the winners will be published on our website and app, as well as a volume of winning literary compositions and an exhibition of the winners in the Art, Design and Technology Section. The adjudication will be provided in Welsh, but in some circumstances it will be possible to provide a translation which will be available after the Eisteddfod.

3 Staging Competitors - The winners in each 'Rhanbarth' (Region) will compete on one of the stages of the Eisteddfod Genedlaethol yr Urdd (Urdd National Eisteddfod), be it a Pavilion, an external stage or competition venue.

4 Adjudicators and Accompanists - Adjudicators and accompanists are not permitted to instruct or teach any competitor within the sections in which they are adjudicating or accompanying between the 1st September and the Eisteddfod.

Adjudicators at the 'Eisteddfod Genedlaethol' must not adjudicate in the Eisteddfodau 'Cylch' or 'Rhanbarth' in the same section in which they will adjudicate at the 'Genedlaethol'. The Director reserves the right to invite adjudicators at the last minute in order to complete adjudications at any/or all Urdd Eisteddfodau.

5 Postponing of an Eisteddfod - The Urdd reserves the right to curtail, postpone or cancel any Urdd Eisteddfod if it is deemed necessary due to exceptional circumstances. The Urdd will endeavour to ensure that all Festival arrangements are efficient but shall not be held accountable for any loss that may occur during any Eisteddfod in the Urdd's name.

6 Staging a Competition - The Urdd reserves the right not to stage all competitions on the main stages of the 'Eisteddfod Genedlaethol yr Urdd'.

7 Public Performances - When submitting a registration form, the person of care acknowledges that all the Urdd Eisteddfod activities are public and competitors will appear on stage in front of those who attend the event. The names of competitors and branches / schools will be announced from the stages in the Eisteddfod and will be published on the Urdd's internal administration documents. At the 'Genedlaethol' (Urdd National Eisteddfod), the names of competitors and branches will be shared with the press including television and radio companies. There is a possibility that the names and images of Urdd Eisteddfod competitors will appear publicly on the Urdd website (e.g. Eisteddfod results) and other public platforms including but not limited to newspapers, local papers, websites and on the Urdd and other social media accounts. The 'Eisteddfod Genedlaethol yr Urdd' (Urdd National Eisteddfod) will be broadcasted live on TV and radio and extensively from the 'Maes' (see rule 9 below). It is the person of care's responsibility to notify the Urdd of any reason not to disclose information about any member. The Urdd is willing to comply, co-operate and facilitate the process to ensure that every member of the organization can compete in the Urdd Eisteddfod in accordance with the member's wishes.

8 Copyright - It is illegal to make additional copies of music, poetry, or any published work. Please see page 10 for further details and guidance on how to secure a publisher's permission to perform a piece of work in public.

The competitor is responsible for securing the right to perform a piece of work in public, and for ensuring that any translation is an official translation registered and approved by the publisher. Proof is requested that these rights have been granted. It is the responsibility of the broadcaster to secure the right to broadcast a piece of work. The Urdd can provide an example of a letter to be sent to the publishers with suitable wording, as well as contact details of the various publishers. Failure to secure the right to perform may mean that competitor(s) are not entitled to perform in public at an Eisteddfod. When using a copyright piece in an originally composed performance (e.g. Stand-up / Action Song etc), it is the competitor's responsibility to ensure all appropriate permissions to use the piece. Such permission must allow the Urdd, S4C and / or any third party to make the performance available without restrictions, globally, without royalties in all mediums or forms of distributions (which exist now or may be developed in the future). Copyright assistance is available by calling the Welsh Department, PRS for Music on 020 3741 4033 or emailing welshstvprogrammes@prsformusic.com. There is no need to ensure permission to use set pieces in the Syllabus. We encourage everyone to choose songs that will not create any difficulty in terms of broadcasting. Some composers / groups should be avoided when it is not possible to secure copyright to broadcast the song. For further details and guidance on how to ensure permission to perform, see page 10.

9 Broadcasting - When registering to compete or attend the Urdd Eisteddfod, the member or person of care acknowledges the possibility that their picture or performance will be recorded and broadcast. The Urdd will be entitled to use them for the Urdd's purposes in the future including broadcasting on S4C, online, on our social media and on BBC Radio Cymru, without seeking the individual's further permission or payment of any other royalties or payment.

10 Publishing - The Urdd reserves the right to publish all or some of the winning 'Composing and Creating' compositions to be used for Urdd purposes in future, without seeking further permission from authors or paying any royalties or any other payment.

11 Changes to the Syllabus - Any changes to the Syllabus will appear on the Urdd Eisteddfod website. If there are any differences between the Welsh and English syllabuses, the Welsh version will be prioritised.

12 Prizes - An Eisteddfod certificate and medal will be awarded to the first, second and third in every competition at the Urdd National Eisteddfod. In group competitions, one medal will be given, but more medals can be bought from the Eisteddfod Department

13 Maint Llwyfan - The size of stages at the 'Genedlaethol' (Urdd National Eisteddfod) are: 'Pafiliwn Coch' (Red) - 6m x 4m; 'Pafiliwn Gwyn' (White) - (10m x 8m); 'Pafiliwn Gwyrdd' (Green) - (10m x 8m).

The size of the stage in the Eisteddfodau Cylch and Rhanbarth may differ, and performances should be adapted to fit the size of the stage available.

14 Instruments - You cannot use your own drum kit on the various stages of the 'Eisteddfod Genedlaethol yr Urdd' (National). A set of drums will be provided on all stages and 3 timpani for the orchestral competitions (only). Drum kits will not be provided at the 'Eisteddfod Gylch' or 'Rhanbarth' (Local / Regional) where you are required to bring your own kit.

If you wish to use the timpani in the orchestral competitions, you must inform the Eisteddfod Department by the 1st of March. (See 'Dates to Remember', page 13).

15 Eisteddfod Organisation - The organising of the Regional Eisteddfod is the Regional Committee's responsibility. Similarly, the organisation of the Local Eisteddfod is deputised to the Local Committee. Urdd National Eisteddfod rules are relevant to all Local and Regional Eisteddfodau. If disagreements arise, the Local and Regional officers must consult with the Eisteddfod department before making any decisions.

- 1 The General Rules at the beginning of the Syllabus are also relevant to this section.
- 2 All pieces must be sung in Welsh; own choice and set pieces.
- 3 Competitors must accept the edition and key(s) noted in this Syllabus. It is not permitted to use a different edition or to change the key of any set piece, unless stated otherwise.
- 4 Solo or individual singing is not permitted in choir or party competitions; if the score refers to a solo or the words suggest that an individual is 'saying something', the part or words must be sung by the all members of the section, unless stated otherwise.
- 5 Accompanists must not alter or change the style of the piano part; you must keep to the copy.
- 6 Individuals, parties and choirs must learn the complete piece, or the number of verses noted in the Syllabus.
- 7 Parties and choirs must bring their own accompanists and conductors, who may be adults, unless stated otherwise.
- 8 Competitors in the Solo 19-25 competition may bring their own accompanists. If you require the services of an Official Accompanist, you must contact the Eisteddfod Department by March 1st – we cannot ensure the availability of an accompanist at the Eisteddfod if you miss this deadline.
- 9 Where there is an own choice, complete copies must be uploaded when registering to compete. A complete copy is one where all parts are under each other in a score and in one PDF file as opposed to a series of individual phone images.
- 10 In competition numbers 10, 12, 23, 25 and 28, the accompaniment may be arranged for suitable various instruments as well as the piano. However, it is the vocal performance that will be adjudicated.
- 11 The use of pre-recorded music or sounds (tracks or drum beats on electronic instruments etc) as an accompaniment is not permitted, unless stated otherwise.
- 12 Canu Gwerin / Folk Songs – Singers should respect the natural rhythm of the words, which vary from verse to verse. See the leaflet from the Folk Music Society on the Urdd Website.

Cerddoriaeth / Music: Instrumental Rules and Details

- The General Rules at the beginning of the Syllabus are also relevant to this section.
- Every competitor must perform the same instrumental piece(s) at every stage from the 'Eisteddfod Gylch' (Local) to the 'Genedlaethol' (Urdd National Eisteddfod).
- Competitors must not exceed the time limits of each competition and must time from the first note (of the soloist or accompanist) to the last note of the performance including any pauses between pieces. See Eisteddfod Rules \(2\) page 8.
- All competitors must provide their own accompanist. Pre-recorded music and electronic beats (e.g. on a synth or keyboard) are not permitted except for Solo Guitar and Percussion competitions where instrumental or tracks in the Welsh Language are permitted. The track should not include the part performed by the competitor.
- Complete copies must be uploaded when registering to compete. A complete copy is one where all parts are under each other in a score and in one PDF file as opposed to a series of individual phone images.
Percussion Solo - Drummers in the Percussion Solo may provide a detailed plan (on paper) which outlines the main characteristics of the performance from section to section, rather than providing a musical copy or a full score of the music.
Ensemble / Band / Orchestra - Each ensemble, band or orchestra is expected to provide a full score of their music. A score includes the part of each instrument set underneath each other - not a set of individual copies for each instrument.
- It is the competitor's responsibility to secure the copyright of any music played live or on a track, which has been published commercially. For further details and guidance on how to secure the right to perform, see Page 10.
- Drums: The Urdd will provide a drum kit on each of the stages of the Urdd National Eisteddfod. You cannot use your own drum kit. However, this provision will not be available at the 'Eisteddfod Gylch' / 'Rhanbarth' (Local / Regional) Timpani: The Urdd will provide 3 timpani for the orchestral competitions. If you wish to use the timpani, you must register an interest by March 1st - we cannot ensure the availability of the instruments at the Eisteddfod if you miss this deadline.
Piano: One piano only is provided in each pavilion, on stage right. The piano must stay in its allocated position.
- The instruments included in the String Solo competitions are the fiddle, viola, cello and double bass; and the Guitar Solo competitions include acoustic, electric and bass guitars, banjo, ukulele and mandolin.
