A WORD OF WELCOME

Eisteddfod Genedlaethol yr Urdd is returning to the City! I wonder if 2019 will be your greatest year as a competitor? There is only one way to know, which is to compete!. The first step is within this syllabus, which contains the subject for every competition. There is something for everyone and a golden opportunity to develop the performing and creative skills of our children and young people. I would like to encourage all members of the Urdd to practice their talents in whichever field they are and wish them all the best whilst they prepare to create and perform. More than anything I hope that our young people will enjoy the process – be it socially while they practice with their friends in choirs etc or while they work individually and have the pleasure of seeing their hard work developing.

I would like also to take this opportunity to thank all the instructors and all the teachers who take the time to present the syllabus and encourage our children and young people to take part at home and socially through the clubs and Aelwydydd. When offering this opportunity, you are encouraging much more than just competing – it is also an opportunity to increase confidence and to create precious memories.

We will be looking forward to extending a warm welcome to Cardiff and to Eisteddfod yr Urdd 2019.

Gwenno Mair Davies

Chairman of the Urdd Eisteddfod Board

Welcome Poem Eisteddfod Genedlaethol yr Urdd Caerdydd a'r Fro 2019

Estynnwn groeso dinas,
a chroeso'r Fro heddiw'n fras,
i bob un trwy byrth y Bae
a'n mileniwm o lannau.
Cewch ar awel ymwelydd
angori dawn yng Nghaerdydd.

Mynnwn ŵyl i gael mwynhau
Llawenydd diwylliannau;
Eisteddfod pob tafodiaith
A'r Maes yn gyfandir maith,
Bydd sgrech o ddinas fechan
Yn llafar gan bedwar ban.

Hynny gewch ar faes ein gŵyl;
Ond hefyd cewch ein tafwyl,
A hufen iâ'n hafau ni
O'r Bae euraid a'r Barri,
A chlwb sy'n chwil ei obaith, -
Clwb lfor - angor yr iaith!

Rhown lais Jarman i'r tannau,
Rhannwn ddawn Butetown a'r Bae.
Cewch wledd ein senedd o sŵn,
Twrw reggae lle trigwn,
A choch pob stadiwm, a chân
Fwynaf y Taf ei hunan.

Gorau'r Fro o'r holl fröydd
A gorau doniau Caerdydd.
Dewch a'ch hangerdd a'ch cerddi,
Eich doniau a'ch hwyliau chi,
A thrwy byrth o aur i'r Bae,
Fan hyn i'n llwyfan ninnau.

Osian Rhys Jones

The poem this year was created following a series of workshops with Osian Rhys Jones and A level and GCSE pupils from Plas Mawr School, Glan Taf School, Bro Edern School, and Bro Morgannwg School. Thank you Osian and all the pupils for your contribution.

General Rules of the Eisteddfod

The Rules stated below are relevant to every Eisteddfod – Local, Regional and National.

1. Language Policy: The Eisteddfod aims to promote Welsh culture and to protect the Welsh Language. Welsh is the language of the Eisteddfod.
All creative works and competitions must be in Welsh except where noted otherwise for a particular competition.
 - i) The competitions are open to any member of the Urdd born in Wales, or any person who has a parent born in Wales, or any person living in Wales immediately before the festival or any person who can speak or write in Welsh. Some competitions require proficiency in the Welsh language and some where language skills are not required. Words used in any work must be in Welsh.
 - ii) Recitation / Action Song / Dramatic Presentation / Theatre
An exception may be made to use another language when there is a need to put part of the work into context. However, over - use of another language will not be permitted.
 - iii) Disco/Hip Hop/Street Dancing / Creative Dancing: It is permitted to use any Instrumental music or music with Welsh language vocals only.
2. Members: Only fully enrolled members of Urdd Gobaith Cymru may compete in Local, County/Regional and National Eisteddfodau. No one shall be considered a full member unless the membership fee has been paid and a Membership Card and number have been received for the year 2018/19. Membership must be registered in good time. Registration to compete can not be accepted without a membership number. It is possible to enrol through the website urdd.cymru/aelodaeth.
3. Registration to compete: Every Urdd member has the right to submit an entry form to the Local Urdd Eisteddfod. Everyone who wishes to compete must register on our website before the closing date for your local Area. Closing dates can be seen on our website: urdd.cymru/eisteddfod. We encourage everyone to enrol as members early in the autumn term and to register to compete in the local eisteddfod as soon as possible. Every Area has a definite closing date followed by a short time to verify the details. Following this time the system will close and it will not be possible to add any names or adapt the information in any way. Parents can verify their children's details on line and draw attention to any problem through their school or local branch.

Competing Restrictions

4. There are no restrictions on who can compete. The Urdd allows schools if they so wish, to hold a school eisteddfod and to send representatives to the Local Urdd Eisteddfod but every member is allowed to compete in the Local Urdd Eisteddfod if that is their, or their parents wish.
5. Learning the set pieces: Competitors must learn the complete piece as noted by the side of the competition and be ready to perform in a preliminary or stage performance. The use of copies of music and/or words is not permitted in any section except the instrumental competitions. Competitors must perform the key and edition noted in the Syllabus. It is not permitted to use a different edition or to change key unless noted in the Syllabus.
6. County/Regional Eisteddfod: Every competitor must appear on the stage of the County/Regional Eisteddfod unless noted otherwise. No individual, party or choir may compete in the preliminary stages of the National Eisteddfod unless officially sent there by one of the Urdd County/Regional Eisteddfodau.
7. Using the same competitors/ pieces: Every competitor must use/perform the same piece/es of work all the way from the Local Eisteddfod to the National Eisteddfod and the same competitors must be used along the journey. It is not permitted to change competitors between the Local/Regional Eisteddfod and the National Eisteddfod. We encourage everyone in group competitions (5 competitors or more) to list reserves in order to avoid any problems that may arise.

- 8. The winners: Only the winner of each competition will represent the County/Region at the National Eisteddfod. If the winner cannot appear, the second placed in the County/Regional Eisteddfod may be invited by the Eisteddfod Dept, and (only by the Dept) to take his/her place. Occasionally the Eisteddfod may invite the first and second placed to represent the County/Region at the National Eisteddfod. The relevant competitors will be informed shortly after the final County/Regional Eisteddfod has been held. In the region where the Eisteddfod is held the first and second placed will represent the County/Region.
- 9. Joint winners: will not be accepted from the County/Regional Eisteddfodau. Every County/Regional committee must arrange with the adjudicators that no joint first, second or third placing should be awarded to individuals or parties in the County/Regional Eisteddfod. If the names of joint winners are sent to the National Eisteddfod, none of the names will be accepted. In the same way no joint winners may be accepted in the composition/literary work.
- 10. Age for Competing: All competitors must be within the correct age group on the last day of August 2019, that is on 31 August following the Eisteddfod. When an "age 14 – 25" competition is specified, for example, the competitors must have had their 14th but not their 25th birthday. Co-operation is sought from competitors, branch leaders and Local, County/Regional committee officials. Each competitor's date of birth will be requested prior to the National Eisteddfod. If any doubt arises regarding the age of any competitor, the Eisteddfod organisers reserve the right to ask to see the Birth Certificate of that competitor.
- 11. The Adjudicator's decision: will be final in every case within the rules and regulations of the festival. Any appeal/protest must be brought to the attention of the Eisteddfod Organiser or Urdd officers (in relation to Local or Regional Eisteddfodau), in writing within an hour of the announcement of the result of the competition, but it is also possible to discuss the matter verbally. See also rule 15. (ix) The chief adjudicator in every competition is the person named first in the Programme.
- 12. Specific Time Rule – In competitions where specific performing times are set, it is required to keep within those specific times noted. It is not acceptable to deliberately perform a piece which is over the specified time. The Eisteddfod will not disqualify competitors for going over the time limit however they will be penalised for being more than 15 seconds over the time limit, but adjudicators can consider a competitor over the time limit even if they are less than 15 seconds over.
- 13. Adjudication: A short written adjudication will be available to every competitor upon completion of the stage competition. A written adjudication cannot be ensured for competitors in composition/literary competitions. A list of the winners and a volume of the winning literary compositions will be published. An exhibition of the winning entries in the Art, Design and Technology will be arranged.
- 14. Administration of the Eisteddfod: The administration of the County/Regional Eisteddfod is the responsibility of the County/Regional Committee. Likewise, the sole responsibility for administering the Local Eisteddfodau is delegated to the Local Committees. The competition rules of the Urdd National Eisteddfod are applicable to every Urdd Eisteddfod. In a situation of dispute, the local/county officials must liaise with the Eisteddfod dept, before making any decisions.
- 15. Eisteddfod outside Wales: The County/Regional Eisteddfod for competitors from outside Wales will be held on 9 March 2019. All competitors from outside Wales must register on line no later than 15 February 2019.

16. Competing:

- (i) Competitors are permitted to compete in their home area or where they receive their full time education or in a branch where they are instructed for the group competition in question. Competitors who have left full time education, and who have left their home area are not permitted to associate themselves with that area as an individual competitor, unless they have set up a new home in the area in question.
- (ii) Members who compete in individual competitions must compete in the same branch, either where their home is or where they receive their full time education only. It is not possible to compete in more than one Local or Regional Eisteddfod in individual competitions.
- (iii) Members who compete in duets, trios or quartets must compete only where their home is or where they receive their full time education.
- (iv) It is possible to compete as an individual in the name of one branch and compete as a duet, trio or quartet in another branch but each one must be where their home is or where they receive their full time education.
- (v) A competitor may belong to more than one branch of the Urdd – i.e. School Adran and Aelwyd. In such cases the competitor may compete for either branch in separate competitions, However, if competitors are competing as individuals they should choose to compete in one branch only, but in all group competitions should associate themselves with the branch that instructed them in that specific work.
- (vi) No competitor should associate themselves with a branch which is some distance from their home without sufficient and sensible reason.
- (vii) It is not permitted for competitors to compete for more than one branch in the same competition or belong to more than one duet, choir, party etc in the same competition. No competitor may compete using more than one instrument in the same instrumental competition.
- (viii) Competitors may only compete once in Craft competitions but members are permitted to enter more than one item in the literary/composition section.
- (ix) The decision of the Chairman of the Eisteddfod Board and the Director of the Eisteddfod is final on all matters regarding competing in the Urdd Gobaith Cymru Eisteddfodau. The Eisteddfod Chairman reserves the right to invite individuals and specialists to contribute to the appeal process if necessary.

- 17. Individual Competitor: A Competitor is not allowed to compete as an 'individual competitor' if there is an Urdd branch within the school or within 10 miles of his/her home. The competitor MUST associate him/her self with that particular branch at all times, unless the closest branch within 10 miles to his/her home is in another region. In such cases, competitors are permitted to compete as an individual competitor in his/her home region.
- 18. Responding before a performance: Unless the competitor responds without delay when called to perform in any preliminary or any Eisteddfod, the competitor will forfeit the right to compete.
- 19. Official Accompanists: Vocal soloists and duets must use the Official Eisteddfod Accompanists in both the preliminary rounds and on the Eisteddfod stage. This is not applicable to Instrumental Solos, Solo 19 – 25 years old or the Solo from a Musical, Duet / ensemble from a Musical.
- 20. Drums: The Urdd will provide a full Drum kit for the preliminaries and stage, competitions in the National Eisteddfod only. Competitors are not permitted to use their own drums. This does not apply to the Local/Regional Eisteddfod where competitors must use their own drum kits.
- 21. Staging Competitors: If merited three competitors will normally be staged in each competition, but the number may vary due to competition standard, time constraints etc.
- 22. Adjudicators: Adjudicators are not permitted to instruct any competitor within the sections they are adjudicating, in the Eisteddfod between 1 September and the Eisteddfod date. Local and Regional committees should refrain from inviting the National Eisteddfod adjudicators to adjudicate in the same section of work in their eisteddfod. An exception may be made to this rule when an emergency arises and an adjudicator is forced to withdraw from the Eisteddfod. The Director reserves the right to bring in adjudicators at the last minute to complete the task.

- 23. Curtail, postpone or cancel an Eisteddfod: The Urdd reserves the right to curtail, postpone or cancel the Eisteddfod if it is deemed necessary due to exceptional circumstances. The Urdd will endeavour to ensure that the Festival is efficiently organised but shall not be held responsible for any loss or accident that occurs during the Eisteddfod. The same applies to the Local and Regional Eisteddfodau.
- 24. Copyright - It is illegal for competitors to make their own additional copies of music, poetry or any other work that has been published. For more information regarding copyright or clearing performance rights of Own Choice pieces, log on to our website urdd.cymru/eisteddfod then choose Competition Rules where there will be a link to Copyright Assistance. It is the competitor's responsibility to ensure appropriate permission to include own choice pieces in their performance, (i.e. all work requiring copyright permission that has not been included in the Syllabus) Unless copyright is ensured it will not be possible to broadcast the performance. When using an original piece within a performance which was originally composed (i.e. Stand-up/Action Song etc) it is the responsibility of the competitor to ensure appropriate permission for such original pieces within the performance. Such permission must ensure that the Urdd, S4C and any other third party can use the performance without restrictions, world-wide and without royalties throughout every medium or form of distribution (currently in existence or in future development) Copyright assistance is available through contacting the Welsh Dept PRS Music on 020 7306 4033 or e-mailing welshdept@prsfmusic.com There is no need to seek copyright for set pieces in the Syllabus. We encourage everyone to choose songs that will not create any difficulty with broadcasting. Some composers/groups should be avoided as it is not possible to get copyright.
- 25. Number in a school branch: When counting the number of children in a school for the purpose of competing, children should be counted from reception class until year 6 inclusive on 31st January. In 3-16 and 3-18 schools, the number of pupils should be calculated up to and including yr 6.
- 26. Staging a Competition: The Urdd reserves the right not to stage every competition on the main National Eisteddfod stage.
- 27. Broadcasting: The Urdd reserves the right to televise, broadcast or record any part of the Eisteddfod activities without prior consultation with competitors accompanists and adjudicators in every Eisteddfod, Local/Regional and the National. By purchasing or accepting a ticket to enter the Eisteddfod site ('Y Maes') or any, Local/Regional Eisteddfod the ticket holder accepts that his/her image may be recorded or broadcasted. Any honorarium given will be the property of the Urdd, and for this purpose the competitors agree to yield with no restrictions their so called 'moral rights' (including without restriction any rights under section 77 and 80 of the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988) or any similar laws of any jurisdiction.
- 28. Complying with the rules: When registering on line to compete, every competitor, instructor, parent and supporter commit to comply with all the Urdd's competition rules, general conditions and code of conduct.
- 29. Publishing: The Urdd reserves the right to publish all or some of the winning musical and literary compositions and to use them for the purpose of the Movement in future without seeking the permission of the authors or to pay any royalties or any other payment.
- 30. Public Performances: When presenting a registration form parents/guardians/branch leaders/teachers/instructors acknowledge that all the Urdd Eisteddfod - Local, Regional and National - are a public event and that all the members who take part appear on a public stage in front of those who attend the event. The names of the competitors and branches/schools are announced from the stage and in the preliminary competitions. The names of the competitors and branches/schools are announced in Urdd internal administrative documents. In the National Eisteddfod the names of competitors and branches are shared with the press which includes radio and TV. There is a possibility that names and photos of the eisteddfod competitors may appear publicly on the Urdd website (e.g. eisteddfod results) and other public platforms including but without restrictions, news papers, local papers, other websites and social media on Urdd accounts and others. The Eisteddfod is broadcasted live on the television and radio and extensively from the Maes (see rule 27). Information about competitors is passed on by the Urdd to establishments such as S4C, and BBC. It is the responsibility of parents/guardians/branch leaders/teachers/instructors to inform the Urdd of any reason not to disclose any information about a member. The Urdd is ready to comply, collaborate and facilitate the process to ensure that every member of the organisation is able to compete in the Eisteddfod as their parents/guardians wishes.

- 31. Changes to the Syllabus: after publishing the Syllabus any further changes to the rules will be on our website urdd.cymru/eisteddfod under Syllabus /Rules and Guidelines. If there are any differences between the Welsh and English version of the Syllabus the Welsh version will be given priority.
- 32. Accommodation: The Urdd does not arrange accommodation for competitors. To obtain information in relation to hotels and centres offering accommodation visit the website urdd.cymru/eisteddfod and choose the link 'Where to stay'.
- 33. Eisteddfod prizes: A Certificate and Medal is given to the first, second and third in every competition in the National Eisteddfod. In Group competitions one medal only is given but it is possible to purchase more medals through the Eisteddfod Dept.
- 34. Sage Size: The size of the National Eisteddfod stage is about 10m x 8m. The Local/Regional stages may be smaller and any performance should be adapted to take this into consideration.
- 35. Urdd Gobaith Cymru expects competitors, instructors and supporters to engage in the spirit of fair play in all aspects of the Movement's activities.

GENERAL RULES FOR WELSH LEARNERS

- 1. PRIMARY – Learners are members who have not followed / are not following a Welsh Programme of Study in Key Stages 1 and 2 but, if they are non-Welsh latecomers to a school where the majority of pupils study through the medium of Welsh then it is permitted to compete as learners for their first three years at the school.
- 2. SECONDARY - Learners are members who have not followed / are not following a Welsh Programme of Study in Key Stages 1, 2 or 3. It is permitted for non-Welsh latecomers to compete as learners. We would hope that members who have one Welsh speaking parent at home will not compete as a learner. Primary school members who move to an English medium school following a time in the Welsh medium sector are allowed to compete as learners in group competitions only.
- 3. Authenticity: When registering competitors leaders warrant the authenticity of every competitor in the Welsh Learners' Section competitions.
- 4. The General Competition rules and the Cerdd Dant, Recitation, Theatre and Literature Sections for Welsh speakers are also relevant to the competitions for Welsh learners.

OFFICIAL NAME OF URDD BRANCHES

- 1. School Adran: Every branch that operates wholly within either a Primary School or Secondary School.
- 2. Adran/Aelwyd: Branches of the Urdd which are open to all the Movement's enrolled members within the relevant age group and who meet and rehearse independently of the educational system outside school or college hours, with a programme of activities from the autumn term onwards which is not an extension of the Urdd work within a school or college.
- 3. Stage Schools – are welcome to compete in the Eisteddfod in the categories for any Urdd member in the appropriate age group category i.e. the competitions not aimed at any particular category. Should you require further information, please do not hesitate to contact your local Eisteddfod Department.

In order to obtain the right to compete, every branch of the Urdd Adran, Aelwyd, School or Stage School, must register with the Urdd annually. For more information please contact Swyddfa'r Urdd, Llangrannog 01239 652 162

STAGE AND MAES COMPETITIONS

MUSIC: VOCAL

1. The General Rules in the front of the Syllabus are also relevant to this section
2. All pieces must be sung in Welsh – own choice and set pieces
3. Three parties or choirs are allowed to represent the Region in competition numbers 31, 32, 33,34,35
4. The competitors must accept the edition and key noted in this Syllabus. It is not allowed to use a different edition or to change the key in any competition unless otherwise stated.
5. Individuals, parties and choirs must learn the complete piece or the number of verses noted in the Syllabus.
6. Parties and choirs must bring their own accompanists and conductors, who may be adults, unless otherwise stated.
7. Parties and choirs must bring their own accompanists in competitions 20, 158, 159, 160 for the Local/Regional and National Eisteddfod.
8. When a company, group or party use pre-recorded music or play any music live which has been commercially published, it is the responsibility of that company, group or party to ensure copyright clearance.
9. Where there is an own choice, copies of the selected score together with the competitors name, address, telephone number and competition number clearly marked thereon, should be submitted to the organiser of the Local Eisteddfod at the same time as when the competitor is registered on-line.
10. It is illegal to make your own additional copies of music, poetry or any work that has been published.
11. In competition numbers 6, 24, 25, 27, 28, 32, 33, the accompaniment may be arranged for various suitable instruments. However, it is the vocal performance that will be adjudicated.
12. The use of pre recorded backing tracks as an accompanist is not permitted, unless noted otherwise.
13. Competitors are expected to be ready to perform immediately after arriving on stage.
14. The Urdd will provide a full Drum-kit for the preliminary and stage performances in the National Eisteddfod. This provision will not be available in the Local and Regional Eisteddfodau, you will need to use your own drums. We kindly ask the Percussion competitors to use the drums provided by the National Eisteddfod.

MUSIC: FOLK SONG

1. The General Rules in the front of the Syllabus are also relevant to this section
2. The natural metre of the words should be respected which may vary from verse to verse. See notes by 'Cymdeithas Alawon Gwerin', on Urdd Website.

MUSIC: INSTRUMENTAL

1. The General Rules in the front of the Syllabus are also relevant to this section
2. Every competitor must perform the same instrumental piece(s) at every stage from the Local through to the National Eisteddfod.
3. Every competitor must provide their own accompanist. Pre-recorded music is not permitted except for Guitar Solo and Percussion competitions where instrumental or Welsh language tracks may be used but the tracks should not include the part performed by the competitor.
4. A Conductor is permitted in competitions 48,50,51,52,&72.
5. See rule regarding time allowance for competitions in the General Rules.
6. Every competitor must provide a copy/score together with the competitors name, address, telephone number and competition number clearly marked thereon, to be submitted to the organiser of the Local Eisteddfod at the same time as when they registered on-line to compete. One exception to this rule is that the drummer in the Percussion competitions may prepare a detailed plan (on paper) which outlines the main characteristics of the performance rather than prepare a full score of the music. Every ensemble, band or orchestra must provide a full score of their music The score must contain the parts of all instruments noted underneath each other – NOT a set of copies for each individual instrument.
7. It is against the law for competitors to reproduce copies of pieces that have already been published. The following is an extract from The Code of Fair Practice that has been prepared by the Music Publishers' Association.

“When a competitor plays an “own choice” piece from a publication containing a number of pieces, and that piece has not been published separately, it is permissible to make one photocopy for use at a competition or festival as long as the competitor has already purchased his/her own copy and that the copy is kept by the Administrator of the Competition or Festival and destroyed immediately after the event”. This does not apply to set pieces.

Competitors who do not conform to this procedure will not be allowed to compete in the Local Eisteddfodau. Copies will not be returned until the competitor has appeared in the Local, Regional and National Eisteddfod.

8. When a company, group or party use pre-recorded music or play any music live which has been commercially published, it is the responsibility of that company, group or party to ensure copyright clearance.
9. Drums: In the Ensemble and Orchestra/Band competition the Urdd will provide a full Drum-kit for the preliminary and stage performances in the National Eisteddfod. It is not permitted to use your own Drums. This provision will not be available in the Local and Regional Eisteddfodau, you will need to use your own drums.

In the Percussion competitions the Urdd will be providing a set of drums for the preliminary and the stage competitions in the National Eisteddfod but this provision will not be available in the Local or Regional Eisteddfodau. The Urdd will not be providing any other percussion instruments.

10. In the String section the expected instruments will be the violin, viola, cello and double base; with the Guitar solo to include acoustic guitar, electric and bass, banjo, ukulele, and mandolin.

CERDD DANT

1. The General Rules in the front of the Syllabus are also relevant to this section
2. The arrangement for each air will be noted in the Syllabus and that arrangement should be adhered to. An instrumental and/or vocal arrangement may be added to the air, but no instrument(s) other than the official harp(s) shall be used to play the full arrangement of the air.
3. In the local, regional and National Eisteddfodau all competitors in the Cerdd Dant section must use the official harpist(s) in the preliminaries and on the stage (with the exception of competitions (81,91,92,93 and 94 rule 4)). It should be ensured that the service of a harpist is available in these eisteddfodau, but if a problem arises the use of a piano is permitted. It must be ensured that all competitors perform under the same conditions on every occasion, i.e. one official accompanist as noted above.
4. In competition nos. 81, 91, 92, 93 a 94 two harps must be used in the preliminaries and on the stage. The second harpist may be under 30 years old and chosen by the competitor or the second official harpist named in the Syllabus. The use of an additional harpist to the two already mentioned is considered part of an ensemble and like any other instrumentalist used must be under 30 years old. The number noted in a group refers to the number singing.
5. If the competitor wishes to change the original key of the air, the change should be limited to a tone and a half above or below of the original key.
6. The competitor and harpist should establish the timing and tempo before commencing the performance.
7. It is not permitted to assist competitors from either the stage or the audience.
8. When a group or party use pre-recorded music or plays live any music which has been commercially published, it is the responsibility of that group or party to ensure copyright clearance.
9. Three parties are allowed to represent the County/Region in competition no 94.
10. A guide on how to arrange the music for competitions in this section, is available on Cymdeithas Cerdd Dant Cymru website
11. It was decided not to note two-part/two-voice but rather to note Party/Choir only – apart from when it is noted as Unison Party. This gives instructors the freedom to use a combination of unison, two-part or three-part as they wish according to their vision.

Likewise, it is not permitted to leave any equipment on stage after the company has departed at the end of the performance.
3. The performance is timed from the first movement or the first sound. From the perspective of the adjudicators the performance will continue until the company has left the stage.
4. Prop and Set The definition of a prop and set is of an item or equipment which one competitor is able to carry on and off the stage.
5. It should not be necessary for the performers to leave and return to the stage in order to change character - this can be achieved without leaving the stage, leaving and returning to the stage should be an exceptional occurrence.
6. There will be 5 microphones at the front of the stage in the National Eisteddfod, and it will also be possible to use up to 4 radio mikes. Competitors should contact the Stage Managers immediately after the Preliminary competition and well before the competition is on stage to discuss their requirements.
7. It is not permitted for competitors to use any drama or prose which has been presented at the Urdd National Eisteddfod within the last three years.
8. It is permitted to include additional members for accompaniment only. The accompanists do not have to be within the competition age limit.
9. Where possible companies are encouraged to use original music. It is the responsibility of that company, group or party to ensure copyright clearance for any pre recorded or published music used.
10. It is the responsibility of the competitors to ensure permission to use any own choice pieces within their performance, that has not been included in the Syllabus. This permission must allow the Urdd, S4C and/or any third party to make this performance available with no restrictions world wide and without royalties through any medium or presentation (available now or in the future).
11. Dialogue: A presentation by 2 – 4 in number of an original, or set piece depending on the competition. The duration of any set script will be 5 minutes and it should be ensured that own choice scripts should not exceed 5 minutes. The instructors have the right to use two contrasting dialects. It is permitted to change the gender of characters if it makes sense and is compatible with the script. Only simple props, costumes and set may be used.
12. Action Song: Companies are expected to perform a presentation on the theme with the emphasis on singing and acting. The melody and lyrics can be either original or published or a combination of both and companies should aim for the music to flow through the performance. It is emphasised that when a company, group or party play pre-recorded music or play live any music which has been published commercially, they must ensure copyright clearance. Only simple props, costumes and set may be used.
13. Dramatic Presentation A performance of a script on a fixed theme by a group. A presentation of the theme is expected with an emphasis on the dramatic element. It is permitted to use work such as parts of plays as well as original work. Music is allowed to add to the atmosphere but it should be noted that this is not the most important element of the competition. Only simple props, costumes and set may be used.

14. Monologue and Individual Theatrical Presentation: Present either a play or a suitable piece of prose which has been published or any suitable original work. Only simple props, costumes and music are permitted.
15. A Solo from a Musical: It is the responsibility of the performer to ensure copyright clearance by the relevant publishing company. The competitor must send proof of performance and copyright permission to the Local Development Officer by 1 March 2019.
16. Duet/Ensemble from a Musical: A performance of up to 5 minutes by 2 and up to 6 people of a song or scene from a musical. Every performer must represent an individual character during the performance. Because of performing right it is not permitted to use props or costumes that replicate the original stage performance. Every competitor must prepare their own accompaniment. A band or pre-recorded music may be used. It is the responsibility of the performer to ensure copyright clearance by the relevant publishing company. The competitor must send proof of performance and copyright permission to the Local Development Officer by 1 March 2019.

The following competitions will not appear on the Local and County/Regional Eisteddfod stage. Competitors must register on line before the regional closing date.

17. Stand Up: A performance of original comedy work by an individual no longer than 4 minutes. This competition will be held on an Open Stage on the Eisteddfod Maes on the Saturday during the Eisteddfod week. There is no need to prepare a script before hand but the contents must be decent.
18. Anthology of a Musical Drama: There is no need to present the whole story and parts of songs may be used but the overall presentation must be seamless and complete. Only simple props, costumes and music are permitted. A band or pre-recorded music may be used. It is the group's responsibility to ensure copyright clearance. The group must send proof of performance and copyright permission to the Local Development Officer by 1 March 2019.

Geraint George Scholarship

- 404. Geraint George Scholarship

This scholarship was established by The Natural Resources Wales and The Snowdonia National Park in memory of the late Geraint George.

The aim of the scholarship, which is open to individuals age 18 – 25, is to maintain exceptional communicators who may be able to help people in Wales and beyond to appreciate the natural world and the factors which affect it.

We invite competitors to send in communicative work in any format and on any environmental subjects relating to Wales. The winner will be given two choices;

- (i) A one week visit to the Triglav National Park in Slovenia where there will be an opportunity to learn about the work there and to take part in some activities.
- (ii) Attend the Europark conference which is held in different parts of Europe each year, where there is the opportunity to learn about what is happening in the different countries and visit some sites.

Additionally, the winner will be able to take advantage of a mentor from Snowdonia National Park or Natural Resources Wales to help develop their career in an environmental field. The winner's work as well as the three best competitors will be displayed on the website of the

The Natural Resources Wales and The Snowdonia National Park

Work is invited in one or a combination of the following formats:

Short film (1-3 min)	Poster/s (up to 3)

Meithrin Talent – Talent Meithrin

405. Age 18 - 24 A new talent to entertain parents and children between 2 and 4 years old

Rules and Details

The aim of the competition which is open to members of the Urdd between the age of 18 and 24 is to find new talent with the aptitude to entertain young children age 2 – 4 and their parents.

The competitors are asked to complete an application form noting their membership number as well as:

- i. A portfolio outlining any relevant experience.
- ii. A 5 minute video to explain a little about themselves and demonstrating their performance ability through songs, dance and story telling.

The criterion are based on the individual's experience of performing in front of an audience and the ability to act and sing.

The Adjudication Process

1. There will be a panel of adjudicators appointed including a representative from the Urdd, Mudiad Meithrin and an experienced performer.
2. Short List- There will be auditions held for the competitors who reach the short list at the Mudiad Meithrin Centre in Aberystwyth on a specific date during February 2019. The competitors will be expected to prepare a short show (up to 10 minutes long) to be performed in front of an audience of children of pre- school age.
3. There will also be an invitation to a mentoring/tuition day at Glan-Ilyn in the company of an experienced mentor.
4. The Competition- The adjudication panel will invite the competitors short listed to perform at various locations on the Maes at the Caerdydd a'r Fro Urdd Eisteddfod 2019 (e.g. Mudiad Meithrin stand, S4C stand and the open air stage.) The Adjudicators will be judging the competitors on their performance standard as well as their understanding of the needs of their audience (i.e. parents and young children age 2 – 4)
5. Winner – The winner will be announced on the Eisteddfod stage in the main Pavilion during the Caerdydd a'r Fro Urdd Eisteddfod 2019.
6. Prize – There will be a financial prize of £500 to the winner. Also the winner will be invited to take part in the Dewin and Doti 2019 Festival tour (dates to be confirmed).

All applications should be sent to the Urdd Eisteddfod office by 31 December 2018 either electronically or by post. More information available on our website.

Journalism

406. A journalistic competition for 16 – 21 years old

Write a news story or produce a report for a website, TV, radio or newspaper based on any local story. The competitors must produce original contents to reflect a distinct story about their local area. It is possible to work as an individual or as a group.
