THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE'S REPORT

The Urdd is an organisation that makes a difference. It makes a difference to the Welsh language and it makes a difference to the culture of Wales. It also, importantly, makes a difference to the lives of children and young people. This review contains a summary of all the activities that have made that difference.

It gives me great pleasure to present a review that describes activities as varied as the fantastic Eisteddfod held at the Wales Millennium Centre, pioneering work with the charity Shelter, an exciting exchange project with a youth organisation in Ireland and the opening of the new Urdd City Sleepover in Cardiff.

Throughout our activities, our central aim is to give the children and young people of Wales an opportunity to live their lives through the medium of Welsh, developing confidence and respect for each other and the people of the world.

This year we are facing the challenging targets that were set by our Corporate Plan. These include:

- Increasing the social use of the Welsh language, concentrating on the 12-15 age group
- Increasing the emphasis on community action, prioritising out-of-school hours activities, including activities during school holidays
- Increasing participation by young people, and developing young leaders.

It would not be possible for us to achieve so much without the enthusiasm, vigour and energy of dedicated volunteers and staff. I am grateful to them all for their valuable contributions.

THE CHAIRPERSON'S REPORT

It is hard to believe that a year has flown by since I contributed to the Annual Report for 2004. Once again, the members of the Urdd experienced a busy and successful year – a year full of varied activities under the leadership of committed staff and enthusiastic volunteers. This collaboration is key to the organisation's success.

Congratulations to everyone involved in the pioneering Eisteddfod at the Wales Millennium Centre – competitors, trainers and organisers alike. The spectacular building was full of the Urdd members' 'Sound of Music and Song' and the Welsh language.

The Urdd City sleepover at the Wales Millennium Centre is becoming ever more popular, and our other centres at Glan-llyn and Llangrannog are as popular as ever.

Growth was seen in sporting activities and in the national activities network with the development of exciting links with Ogras in Ireland, and I'm extremely proud of the various humanitarian projects taking place all over Wales.

The Urdd has a very important role to play in the development of the children and young people of Wales, and it is our duty to give our members the best possible opportunities. Keep up the good work!

Rhiannon Lewis
Chairperson

URDD GOBAITH CYMRU'S MISSION STATEMENT

The aim of Urdd Gobaith Cymru is to ensure that all the young people of Wales are given the opportunity, through the medium of the Welsh language, to develop into mature individuals, and to empower them to play a constructive role in the community, by encouraging personal and social skills. All this is fulfilled by a pledge of service to Wales, to fellow-man and to Christ.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT, CAROL DAVIES

It was pure joy to be President of Europe's largest youth organisation, Urdd Gobaith Cymru 2004 – 2005, during an extremely exciting year.

Looking back over the year, I remember with a smile the official opening of the Wales Millennium Centre and the Urdd choir running onto the stage to perform so passionately and succeeding in giving me and the audience a great thrill. I cannot forget the Eisteddfod at the Wales Millennium Centre either - Wales and the Welsh in every part of the building. The experiences and wonderful memories I have of that time will be with me for ever, and I'm confident that the motto of the Urdd to be faithful to Wales, Fellow-man and Christ is alive and secure in the hands of our youth.

Carol Davies

President, Urdd Gobaith Cymru 2005

THE EISTEDDFOD AND THE ARTS

- The eisteddfod held on Anglesey in 2004 was exciting and successful, and left a valuable cultural inheritance in the area.
- This year a ground-breaking eisteddfod was held at the Wales Millennium Centre – an eisteddfod that was a particular milestone for the organisation.
- One highlight was seeing the Urdd members starring on one of the world's best performing stages.
- The evenings saw a wonderful opening concert, the Urdd Youth Theatre Company was re-established and staged a memorable performance of Les Miserables with over 100 of our members from all over Wales.
- Cardiff Bay was transformed into an arts village for a week and the performances of members on smaller stages, and in the foyers of the Wales Millennium Centre, thrilled the eisteddfod goers.
- 40,000 Urdd members competed in the Local and County Eisteddfodau, with 15,000 of them reaching the National Eisteddfod.
- 100,000 visitors flocked from every part of Wales and beyond to enjoy the myriad attractions of the festival.
- In exciting developments this year, a series of master classes was held for the eight competitors for the Urdd Gobaith Cymru Bryn Terfel Scholarship.
- We look forward in 2006 to returning to a rural setting and a glorious site on the outskirts of Ruthin, below Moel Famau and in the shadow of the Clwydian Hills. Awaiting you will be a feast and a warm-hearted welcome.

"The Urdd develops talent. It broadened our horizons and developed our personalities by allowing us to meet other young people from all over Wales. And at a very young age we became used to competing on a stage and to coping with the pressures of performing. By the time we left we were already ten steps up the ladder to success."

RESIDENTIAL CENTRES

Gwersyll yr Urdd Caerdydd

- A brand new centre was opened at the Wales Millennium Centre - with 150 beds, a hall, theatre, lounge and classrooms.
- Over 5,000 children and young people have stayed at the centre and 600 young people came on day visits, enjoying a full timetable including visits to the Millennium Stadium, The Assembly, The Museum of Welsh Life, Techniquet and much more.
- Ffwrnais Awen was established, the centre's weekly arts workshop.
- Hundreds of Urdd members performed on the Lanfa at the Wales Millennium Centre every week.
- Come to visit the centre – we offer new artistic opportunities to our young people and an unrivalled way of visiting our Capital.

Gwersyll yr Urdd Glan-llyn

- This was another busy year at the centre with 12,000 visitors and an increase in the individual groups visiting Glan-llyn.
- Recent developments such as the lecture room / theatre have proved to be a useful and popular additional resource for the centre and for external organisations, together with the new ensuite rooms in Llys Aran.
- A brand new digilab was established through the Credu scheme with the very latest computer resources.
- New resources have been added to the lake activities and also there have been modifications to the sports hall.
- Developments and improvements to the landing stage and the High Ropes Course are on the way!

Gwersyll yr Urdd Llangrannog

- Another successful year with the centre open for 50 weeks and welcoming 20,000 visitors.
- The new developments have proved popular especially the new leisure centre and accommodation block.
- Work has started on creating a Heritage Centre on the farm, which will be another valuable resource for the centre and the local community.
- By now the offices, and a new reception area, are all under the one roof in the old Bryneithin dormitory block.
- The centre continues to play an important role in the economic and social life of South West Ceredigion, employing more than 90 people and contributing £2.5 million to the local economy.
- The ski slope and the new leisure centre are open to the public in the evenings.
- The approach road to the centre has been improved recently. Buses can now reach the centre conveniently from the north and south.

"This latest development shows that Llangrannog Urdd Centre is going from strength to strength... it is appropriate that a historical element is being added to the range of activities on offer at the centre so that visitors can learn about the importance of the Urdd to the cultural life of Wales and also about the local area."

Alun Pugh, The Minister for Culture, the Welsh Language and Sport, about the new Heritage Centre.

"Llangrannog staff who are responsible for the activities are welcoming to the children, explaining the activity well and ready to help the individual who is nervous, and scared. ...Many many thanks for the warm-hearted welcome, the standard of the activities, the standard of hygiene, the standard of Cilborth, the new building. Looking forward to next year!" Teachers of Ammanford District Schools

"The experiences the children have at Glan-llyn continue to realise the objectives of Syr Ifan's ideals namely a combination of sports and the Eisteddfod or, in the words of I.D. Hooson – gwin yr hen ffiolau a brofais ddyddiau gynt. "

COMMUNICATIONS AND MAGAZINES

- 51,499 joined the Urdd this year, 2,841 of them Urddaholics.
- A new image was launched for the organisation, with a refined logo and detailed guidelines on its use and, by now, all the marketing material is being designed by one company.
- A new exhibition was commissioned, and also the Urdd had a lively presence in the national Eisteddfodau and festivals.
- 470,000 people visited the Urdd website.
- There was wide coverage in the press and the Welsh media, especially at the time of the official opening of the Wales Millennium Centre and during the Urdd Eisteddfod.
- Ten issues each of Cip, Bore Da and iaw! were published, and the magazines are read by 28,000 children and young people all over Wales every month.
- E-mail workshops were arranged with Tudur Dylan, Children's Laureate of Wales, the Urdd being one of the partners involved with the initiative, and it has been announced that Mererid Hopwood will be Children's Laureate of Wales 2005-2006.

"I enjoy the competitions in every Cip. There are enough things in Cip to keep us busy. I like the puzzles, the stories, the jokes corner and other things."

Pupil of Ysgol Cymerau, October 2004

"Bore Da – extremely interesting and colourful monthly that is of great help to children and teachers in our Anglicised areas."

AUDITORS' STATEMENT ON THE FINANCIAL SUMMARY

AUDITORS' STATEMENT TO THE URDD GOBAITH CYMRU DIRECTORATE

We have examined the financial summary on this page.

Appropriate Responsibilities for directors and auditors

You, the directors, are responsible for preparing the financial summary. We have agreed to express to you our opinion on the consistency of the financial summary with the full statutory accounts, which were signed on 29 September 2005.

The Basis of our Opinion

We have done the work which we consider appropriate to establish whether the financial summary is consistent with the financial statements when these were prepared from them.

Our Opinion

In our opinion the financial summary is consistent with the full financial statements for the year ending March 31 2005.

Patterson Jones & Evans

Registered Auditors, Lampeter.

DIRECTORS' REPORT

The accounts above are a summary of information abstracted from the full financial statements.

The full financial statements were approved by the Board of Directors on 29 September 2005 and they have been sent to Companies House and the Charities Commission. The accounts were audited by Patterson, Jones & Evans and were given an unconditional report.

It is possible that the financial summary does not provide sufficient information to give a full understanding of the charity's financial affairs. For further information, therefore the full statutory accounts, the Auditors' report on those accounts and the Trustees Annual Report need to be consulted. Copies of these can be obtained from the company.

Signed on Behalf of the Board of Directors

THE TREASURER'S ANNUAL REPORT 2004/5

Last year was once again a very busy period for the organisation, as is reflected in our financial results for the year. The figures reflect the complex nature of the Urdd's commercial activities by now, in the midst of a continuing period of investing in expensive permanent facilities – we will see the value of these investments for years to come.

Although we had foreseen a financial loss over the year, the shortfall on ordinary trading activities of £351,231 that appeared in our full accounts for the year was higher than expected. Together with the costs of establishing ourselves in Cardiff, the main reasons for this were:

- centres failing to reach the challenging income targets that were set at the beginning of the year. It should be noted that the centres are maintained without any form of subsidy
- the contribution of grants to the movement generally has reduced in real terms, and this is an important factor that needs particular attention
- a considerable increase in the organisation's general insurance costs, reflecting a market where there are fewer and fewer companies prepared to offer terms in this field

Positive measures have already been implemented in order to ensure that financial performance shows an improvement in the current year, including:

- a review of the price structure at the centres in order to reflect the true cost of the varied facilities of the highest caliber, in a safe environment
- firm control of costs in general
- a review and strengthening of the organisation's marketing processes
- promote relations between the Urdd and other youth organisations throughout Wales in order to increase income from grants generally

We are very grateful yet again to all the Urdd staff, and the myriad volunteers who have assisted us during the year, in order to offer such varied experiences to the youth of Wales. It is essential that we continue to offer these opportunities in years to come, at the same time as ensuring firm financial foundations.
