Urdd's Peace and Goodwill Message 2021 Equality For Women and Girls

Women's rights are human rights
Human rights are women's rights
We can't save the world until the world is equal

This is more than a hashtag.

Let's re-think our words
and replace negative with positive
Not bossy but self-confident
Not blunt but independent
Not emotional but powerful
Not stubborn but successful

We are the young people of Wales standing with our sisters around the world.

Coronavirus has stopped the clock.
Let's use the new normal to create a better future.
A future where every girl is educated.
A future of confident women.
An equal future for all, in countryside and cities,
from east to west.

We are today's students and pupils.
We are tomorrow's leaders and pioneers.
Together, we'll smash the glass ceiling,
we'll follow our dreams
And pave the way for the next generation.

This is more than a hashtag.
This is your call, to stand with every woman and girl.
He for She, and Them with Us.
There's no stopping us, together.
